

56. PUNCTUATION: Quotation Marks(Study 44–48, Quotation Marks)Write C if the punctuation in brackets is correct.Write X if it is not.Example: "What time is it[']?" wondered Katelyn. X

1. The stadium announcer intoned[, "[Ladies and gentlemen, please rise for our national anthem." 1. _____
2. The television interviewer shoved a microphone in the mother's face and demanded, "How did you feel when you heard that your little girl had been kidnapped[']?" 2. _____
3. In the first semester we read Gabriel García Márquez's short story "Big Mama's Funeral[']".] 3. _____
4. "Where are you presently employed[']," the interviewer asked. 4. _____
5. "When you finish your rough draft," said Professor Grill[, "[send it to my e-mail address." 5. _____
6. Who was it who mused, "Where are the snows of yesteryear[']?" 6. _____
7. Dr. Nelson, our anthropology teacher, asked, "How many of you have read The Autobiography of Malcolm X[']?" 7. _____
8. "We need more study rooms in the library[,]" declared one presidential candidate in the student government debate. 8. _____
9. "Write when you can[,]" Mother said as I left for the airport. 9. _____
10. To dissuade means "to persuade someone not to do something[']".] 10. _____
11. "Ask not what your country can do for you['];" ask what you can do for your country." 11. _____
12. He said, "Our language creates problems when we talk about race in America.[']" "[We don't have enough terms to explain the complexities of cultural diversity." 12. _____
13. "Do you remember Father's saying, 'Never give up[']'" she asked. 13. _____
14. She began reciting the opening line of one of Elizabeth Barrett Browning's sonnets: "How do I love thee? Let me count the ways[']".] 14. _____
15. Gwendolyn Brooks's poem ["The Bean Eaters[']"] is one of her best. 15. _____
16. ["The Fantasticks[']"] which ran for more than forty years, is the longest-running musical play in American theater. 16. _____
17. "Want to play ball, Scarecrow[']" the Wicked Witch asked, a ball of fire in her hand. 17. _____
18. "Shall I read aloud Whitman's poem 'Out of the Cradle Endlessly Rocking[']'" she asked. 18. _____
19. Have you read Adrienne Rich's poem "Necessities of Life[']?" 19. _____
20. When Susan saw the show about America's homeless, she exclaimed, "I have to find a way to help[']!" 20. _____
21. The noun neurotic is defined as "an emotionally unstable individual[']".] 21. _____
22. "I'm going to the newsstand," he said[, "[for a copy of Sports Illustrated." 22. _____
23. "Do you believe in fairies[']?" Peter Pan asks the children. 23. _____
24. How maddening of her to reply calmly, "You're so right[']"! 24. _____